The Bloomfield Record.

ily Reading, First-class Advertising. forms $1 50 in Advance. Subscription

Begin at any Time. OFFICE ON GLENWOOD AVENUE.

AT THE RECORD PRINTING OFFICE We are prepared to do, Promptly, Skilfully, and a Commercial Stationery. Letter and Note Heads, Envelopes, Etc., Furnished, Ruled and Printed according to order.

Groceries, Markets, Etc.

At J. H. COLFAX'S STORE,

Next door to Post Office, Bloomfield. You will find a complete assortment of

GENERAL AND FANCY GROCERIES DR. C. S. STOCKTON. which will be sold as low as can be afforded with a view, always, to pay 100 cts. on a dollar. N. B .- We will give you goods at Newark prices and throw in your time and fare, if you give us same kind of pay, yes, will do more-deliver them

MARTIN BROS.

AND

fith fign the are dela ad-tyric this tee. ions end ain-Par-tyos ork.

BY ST.

S.

in the liver pains, ervous blood.
Belt

ale and as and a co.,

LSIOR

worth nd, Me.

E.

$2 per

41 Park

ishers.

CO.,

ers in

L8.

th a Magie

Wood

substantial simber, for any Wood igo.

Corner Bloomfield Ave. and Broad St., DEALERS IN Presbyterian Church.
Office hours 7 to 9 A. M. and 5 to 7 P. M.

PROVISIONS.

BROCERIES

Also have constantly on hand

Straw in Bundles or Bales,

FLOUR, FEED, MEAL, OATS, CORN, Cracked Corn, Wheat Bran, &c.

Which will be sold at Lowest Market Prices for Cash.

Edward Wilde,

Bloomfield Centre, desires to call attention to his

Fine Assortment of

Oil Cloths, Shades and Fixtures,

House Furnishing Goods

Generally. Almost everything needed in a Family. Please call and judge for yourself.

WILLIAM COLFAX. DEALER IN

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

Grain, Feed, &c. A FINE ASSORTMENT of all goods in my line Cor. BROAD ST. and BELLEVILLE AVE., Bloom-

TUST RECEIVED !

A FRESH SUPPLY OF FINE BUTTER. CHEESE and EGGS

At Lowest Market Prices Choice Groceries and Provisions, Teas, Coffees, Spices, Etc. We keep constantly on hand a large assortment

ST. LOUIS. FAMILY FLOUR, put up in sacks, or by the bbl.

Call, and we guarantee satisfaction. J. H. WAY.

THE GLENWOOD AVE. GROCER.

COLUMBIA MARKET.

JOSEPH BOLSHAW

Dealer in BEEF, VEAL, MUTTON, LAMB, PORK, POULTRY Smoked and Corned Meats, also Fruits and Vegetables in their Season. Bloomfield Avenue, Opposite Archdescon's Hotel.

PROAD STREET MARKET. J. H. BROWN & BRO.

Dealers in all kinds of Fresh and Corned Meats. Also all kinds of Vegetables in season. Broad st, Three doors above Belleville ave.

BLOOMPIELD MARKET. WILLIAM. J. MADISON BEEF

TEAL, MUTTON, LAMB, POULTRY, SMOKED AND CORNED MEATS, Fruits and Vegetables in their Season. BLOOMFIELD CENTRE, BLOOMFULD, N. J.

The Bloomfield Record.

S. M. HULIN, Publisher.

Professional and Business Cards.

W. E. PINKHAM, D. D. S.,

(Late of N. Y. Ophthalmic Hospital,)

OFFICE HOURS: 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

Clinic for Poor from 9 to 10, A. M.

NEWARK, N. J.

No. 39 BANK STREET, CORNER HALSEY STREET.

LATE OF THE NEW YORK HOSPITAL,

hysician and Surgeon

OFFICE: NEXT WILDE'S STORE.

Office Hours, 8 to 10. Boards at Park House.

DENTIST.

HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN,

BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

OFFICE ON FRANKLIN STREET,

DURE DRUGS AND MEDICINES

MISS MICHELL'S

TO BE HAD AT

DR. WHITE'S FAMILY DRUG STORE.

English and French Day School

For Young Ladies and Little Girls,

Will open SEPT. 6th, 1875.

inquire at No. 2, Washington Ave., Bloomfield N.

TERMS MODERATE.

MISS FANNY C. CARL.

TEACHER OF INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

COMMISSIONER OF DEEDS

NOTARY PUBLIC

RESIDENCE : BROAD STREET,
Second Door North of Post Office

MISS CLARA EVELAND'S

DIANO PORTE INSTRUCTION.

THOMAS TAYLOR,

THOMAS T. CADMUS

CAMUEL CARL,

BAKERY, CONFECTIONERY,

ICE CREAM SALOON,

RUDOLPH BRUETT.

PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL

PAINTER,

Frescoer, Kalsominer, Grainer,

Glazier, &c.

D. W. SMITH.

[Shop and Residence, Franklin Street.]

House, Sign & Ornamental

PAINTER.

GRAINING, PAPER HANGING, KAL

SOMINING, GLAZING, ETC.

PRACTICAL PAINTER.

OBNAMENTAL PAINTING.

Corner Linden avenue and Thomas street, BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

REAL ESTATE AGENT AND AUCTIONEER, BROAD STREET, ABOVE BENSON.

GRAINING, GILDING, &c.

TOSEPH H. EVELAND,

CHITH E. PERRY

Residence on Broad Street three doors above

B. PITT, M. D.

essor to Drs. Colburn)

No 15 Cedar street.

CHARLES H. BAILEY, M. D.,

Graduate of Philadelphia Dental College.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER, BUT TRUTH IS THE FO

Terms, $1.50 Per Annus

Whole No. 151.

What is Life?

A little crib beside the bed,

A little face above the spread

A little frock behind the door,

A little lad with dark brown heir,

A little blue-eyed face and fair;

A little lane that leads to school

A little blithesome, winsome maid

A little old time household store

A little turf-heaped, tear-dewed mound A little added to the soll,

A little family gathered round

A little rest from hardest toll.

A little silver in his hair,

A little stool and easy chair.

A little night of earth-lit gloom

Little words are the sweetest to hear

A little cortege to the tomb.

A little pencil, slate, and rule.

A little hand within is laid;

A little cottage, acres four,

A little shoe upon the floor.

Vol. III. No 48.

DENTISTRY.

SI BROAD STREET,

DR. E. MACPARLAN,

· BLOOMFIELD, N. J. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1875.

"You will, Addy ?" Gone Away. I know a quiet country town,

And in the dell and on the down The yellow sunlight glints and glows. I know a square gray house of stone I never think of but I sigh,

By which a river falls and flows;

NEWARK, N. J. Beyond whose garden, smoothly mown. The rushing engines shrick and fly. I know a chosen chamber there thread the narrow, winding street, I linger in the lonely lane, Which once were trod by fairy feet That will not tread their paths again.

A fairy figure used to grace; I know an eastern window where ISEASES OF THE EYE AND EAR A SPECIALTY. Was wont to watch a fairy face.

I love that quiet country town; It is to me a sacred place; And as I wander up and down, Those vanished steps I seem to trace.

And still the hours serenely pass, And still the busy river flows; And still among the shining grass The yellow sunlight glints and glows. And there the house is, square and gray,

And there the new-mown meadows lie

She used to guze on day by day, In Faith, and dreamy reverie. Yes, all is there-except the face; Newark, N.

That little window gapes forlorn; And on me, as I haunt the place, The morning sunshine smiles in scorn.

MY RUSSET APPLES.

A late March twilight, with a bitter frost in the air, the new moon just dip-ping its golden horn, whind the maple swamp in the west, and the ground sound-Grades given, either by Contract or by Day Work in from foddering the cattle—"we" if you'll knrry up the tes I'll be off to the Next door to the German Theological Seminary, of seventeen and nineteen; but you see, there wasn't any one else to do it. Father had been bedridden ever since that last attack of paralysis, and we could afford to hire no one to take his place about the farm. en on Sundays, 9 to 10 a. M., 12 to 1, 5 to 6 ? a

"I don't pity them gals," neighbor Dyson said. "They might sell the horse and cow."

Neighbor Dyson had generously offered us something less than half price for them, thinking, no doubt, that we would be thankful to jump at the chance. But Kitty and I, after taking the matter into consideration, thanked him and declined

"We couldn't keep house without Moomake for poor father, if we have plenty butter that we should have to buy at neighbor Dyson's city prices, would go far to counterbalance the money we should get for Mooley." "And as for the horse," said I, eats but little; and how on earth could we get around the country, even to the post office, such weather as this, if it wasn't for old Dobbin, that we have had ever since I could remember."

So it happened that, on this special March evening, we had just come in from attending to the wants of our live stock.

I was in great spirits, playing with pussy, who came to meet us, with her plumpy tail erect; but Kitty leaned sadly against the wooden mantel, and look ed into the fire with mournful eyes.

"Kitty," cried I, at last, "what does make you so dull ?"

"To-morrow is the third of March, said she gravely.

"What of that?" I demanded "Don't you remember ? The interest on the mortgage comes due to-morrow. "So it does." said I, my radiant face falling faster than the thermometer on freezing day. "Thirty-five dollars! And we have nothing to pay it with, except the fifteen dollars Laura Osgood paid for the old melodeon." "Perhaps Willis Avery would wait!" suggested Kitty. I drew myself up slightly,

"I don't choose to ask him to wait," Now it happened that Willis Avery. who held the mortgage on our homestend, was the son of a neighbor, and an old playfellow and hoy-beau of my own, in the year 1858, I feel entitled to claim the oldest city a few miles north of us and com- fruit as speedily as possible, as I am in a and I had a particular aversion to asking Orders addressed to me. (Box 129, P. O.,) will be aid or help of him in anyway. I might pin g frost had chilled his enthusiasm in was quite sympathetic enough to under- myself.

"But then, what are we to do?" said crept away and nestled down in the cor- Boadices in her chariot of old. ner, as if she knew by instinct that there was a change of temperature.

"Those russet apples !"

"My dear Addy, no one will buy them him with the air of an empress. at one fifth the price. Apples are a drug "Your money is ready, Mr. Avery."

"And why not? Squire Dyon would charge at least twenty per ceut sion, and make a favor of it that. I to this. I did not know-" can't afford either the price of the patronage. Don't say anything shout it to 1 father. He would only fret and raise oblika," I interposed. jections. What must be done must be, and I am the girl to do it." "But, Addy, how? All this se perfectly wild and visionary to me." "Well, it needn't, for believe me it's the most practical thing in the world. All we have to do is to sort the appea out into fact I could not. barrels, nice and sound—I can easily do it by lantern light to-night—and to-mor-"Dear Addie, will you let me sign back the old place to your father on our rels up into the wagon?" "Goosie !" cried I, langhing, "can't I "This is all very ridiculous of us," said put the barrels up into the wagon while I, particularly as I had resolved never to they're empty, and fill them at my leisure? marry since we had that quarrel about little charities fly furthest and stay long. And I'll have them sold at Mapleton be- my dancing with Gerald Ferguson at the est on the wing ; little flakes are the stillfore you've got the pork and cabbage Fourth of July picnic.

boiling for dinner." "But where will you go?" asked Kit-Dobbin to the lumber-wagon-"

"O, I know lots of places. I went once to town with Obadiah Fairweather, when he sold a lot of cheese. I've a pretty good idea of the locality of the commission stores, I can tell you." "After all, Addy," hesitated my conservative little sister, "it isn't a woman's work." "Why isn't it, I should like to know, so long as a woman can do it? At all events, a woman must pay her debts, so "Oh, he'll think I've gone to singing school with the Dyson girls, and I don't think it's a Christian's duty to undeceive But notwithstanding the brave face I put upon my affairs, my heart quivered a little next day, as I drove off towards Mapleton, with the scarlet stain of sunrise dying all the east, and my own cheeks flushed with the keen morning pardonable egotism, I supposed that every one would be staring at me, but on the contrary, a young woman selling apples might be the commo the world, so little comment duce and commission merchants, didn't want apples, I speedily learned. "Just bought a ship-load from bany," said he, as carelessly as if ship loads of apples were as common a purchase as ten cents' worth of tape. I drove on, beginning to feel infinites

Mr. Lovejoy would give me a dollar barrel. "Apples wasn't worth no more at this season of the year!" And I whipped old Dobbin up, determined to carry them home again sooner than to sell

At the next place where I stopped, pleasant looking, middle-aged man came out and critically examined my apples. "Do they hold out like this all the way

lown ?" he asked. "I'll warrant them," said I, carelessly. "How much ?" he asked

"Two dollars and a half a barrel." He reflected. "Its a good price," said he, as if he were talking to his own vest-buttons, "but they look like good apples, and we've tolerably large western orders to fill. I'll see what my partner thinks." He went back into the gleomy depths f his store, and, happening to glance up, I saw the words painted in black etters over the door, "Hull & Avery."

My first impulse was to drive on, and leave the chances for a bargain behind me : my next to sit still and await my And presently out came Willis Avery

"I think we'll take your load, if-Why!" breaking short off, "it's Addy

I colored scarlet. "Yes," said I, as composedly as possible. "Good morning, Mr. Avery.

be poor, but I was also proud, and Kitty the bud, and I secretly exulted within Mr. Hull bought the load of apples, and said if I had any more at the same price—and of the same quality, he cau-I sat down on the hearth-rug, with my tiously added-he would be happy to chin in my hands, and stared earnestly take them. Willis Avery touched his at the big crackling backlog. Pussy hat, and I drove away as loftily as Queen

"Just thirty-five dollars, counting i the melodeon money," cried Kitty, gle "Look here, Kitty," I said suddenly, fully. "And now Mr. Avery may come as soon as he likes !"

city. I will take them to Mapleton and you think one's mind always runs on 000 is still lacking and must be raised in any other six words in the English lan-

"Mine does a good deal," said I, laugh-"But I had no idea you were reduced "Mr. Avery this is scarcely business

"Addie," said he abruptly, "I admired your spirit and courage to-day, I always liked you as a girl, but now-" "Well ?" for he hesitated.

"I would do something more, if you would le me. I would love you !" I did not answer. In truth and is row morning we'll rise early, parness old wedding day?" he asked earnestly. And somehow he had got hold of my "But how are we to get the heavy bar- hand, and somehow, before I knew it, we were engaged !

again," said Willis Avery.

anything especially rare and beautiful, she makes it little-little pearls, little dia "Our troubles are at an end," said she, "and all because you would take that load monds, little dew. Agar's is a model of russet apples to town yourself."

"That doesn't follow," said I, sagely. lieve a little in fate, and I've always liked last dedication discourse was an hour. usset apples since.

Great Seal of the United States.

It is a curious fact, that the seal of the United States was devised by an Englishman, Sir John Prestwick, a baronet. At laugh at that drunken man reeling rel brothers together, instead of the least this is declared to be so. As soon through the street. However ludicrous strangers." as the Declaration of Independence was the sight may be, just pause and think. adopted a new seal became necessary for He is going home to some tender heart public papers. Some very odd devices that will throb with intense agony; some were suggested. One was Moses with his doting mother, perhaps, who will grieve rod dividing the Red Sea, while Pharach over the downfall of him who was once in his chariot was overwhelmed in the her sinless boy; or it may be a fond wife, water. On the other side was a shield, whose heart will almost burst with grief containing in six compartments the symbols of the six countries from which the or may be a loving sister, who will shed United States had been mainly peopled. bitter tears over the degradation of her Thus in our division there was a rose for brother, shorn of his manliness and self-England; in the second, a thistle for respect. Rather drop a tear in silen Scotland; in a third, a harp for Ireland; sympathy with those hearts so keenly then a golden lily for France, a crowned sensitive and tender, yet so proud and lion for Holland, and a black eagle for loyal that they cannot accept sympathy tendered them either in word, look or led by a cloud. A third represented ingly as the summer dew upon the with Hercules resting on his club, while Virtue ering plant. urged him up a rugged mountain path, and Sloth pointed to a flowery, downcomplimentary to the new nation, as it of a church-steeple one is to jump down find about the same state of affairs. laziness. All these, and a number of steps; but both will lead to the bottom. Army, who spends his life on the frontier Without further parley this was adopted, then it becomes pleasing, then easy, then out for sailors' lives and property. For and thus the seal of the United States delightful, then frequent, then habitual, this service, which technically extend came from England. ter of hydration of the lime, liberated by with little sins .- Good Cheer. the action of carbonic acid. The action of the small quantity present in the normal atmosphere, would, however, be so little boy from wearing out the knees of rooms with carbonic acid, before occu- your own boy's doing it." pying them, suggests itself, at once, as a means of rendering them rapidly tenantable. Although, by calculation, it would that threeafter they would never use him Sur displace the hydrate in water in the walls during the war, but that once over, and to waste away on a paltry salary of $5,000 surface, in practice the consumption, in man fair sex couldn't withstand the presa suitable way, of about five pounds of sure, and again applied in the proper charcoal per day, for five days, in the quarter for bonnets and dresses. The about one-tenth of an inch has been acted on. This is proved by the fact that Prof. Fuchs has detected caustic linen in walls centuries old.

penses, and afterwards to dividends up-"I was not thinking of the money, Ad- on the stock subscribed by individuals before Spring.

It is useless to talk about beginning to do better to-morrow; either begin to-day, or say nothing about it.

A lady, who gazed approvingly at the nearly finished dome of the new Court house, remarked to a friend: "Won't it be splendid when they get a new justice of peace up there?"

"John Henry," said his wife with stony severity, "I saw you coming out of a sa-loon this afternoon." "Well, madam," replied the obdurate John, "you would-'t have me stay in there, would you."

Pat had been engaged to kill a turtle for a neighbor, and proceeded immedi-ately to cut off its head. Pat's attention was called to the fact that the turtle still crawled about, though it had been de-capitated, and he explained: "Sur-, the baste is entirely dead, only he is not yet

Over the pulpit of a Michigan church, according to The Odd Fellow, published in that State, is this inscription: "No man shall preach in this Church who does not kneel when he prays; no man shall preach in this Church who uses manuscript; no man shall preach in this Church who belongs to any secret socie-

A shrewd countryman who went to New Haven last week to get his dividend from the Townsend Savings Bank and found a large number of people in line before him, bribed a neighboring peanut vender to engage with him in a mock fight. Of course the line broke up, and the countryman was one of the first to start afterward and get his money.

A book agent called on a farmer near marry since we had that quarrel about my dancing with Gerald Ferguson at the Fourth of July pionic.

"I'll promise you never to be jealous farms the best tilled; little books are the again," said Willis Avery.

Kitty was jubilant when she heard it anything especially rare and beautiful, anything especially rare and beautiful, form feet."

A book agent called on a farmer near Oriskany the other day, and was told that the farmer was too busy to talk with him. "But," said the agent, "your farm work is all done. You have nothing to occumost read, and little songs the dearest py your time." "Yes I have, too," retorted the farmer. "I've got to plant my foot and raise a book agent, about foot and raise a book agent.

prayer, yet it is but little, and the burden of the petition is but for little. The Mr. P. T. Barnum told the following But for all my philosophy, I did be- Sermon on the Mount is little, but the man said they were the most remarkable phenomenon in the known world, Life is made up of littles ; death is what born in Siam, &c. Brothers, I supremains of them all. Day is made up of little beams, and night is glorious with little stars.

| Day is made up of littles and night is glorious with little stars. | Day is made up of gatively, still looking with wonder at the tied-ups. 'Yes, sir, brothers; natural brothers, too,' said the showman. 'My dear,' said the visitor, religiously, turn-

Enormous City Salaries. The N. Y. Times contained an article recently which gave a pretty clear idea of the extravagance in the matter of saleties paid the city officials. After show ing that the Mayor, receiving $12,000 per annum, gets more than the aggregate salaries paid the Governars in wine States, it is shown by tables, that the city financial government is costing considerable ment. Mayor Wickham's Secretarylgets $1,500 more than President Grant's. Bu that is nothing compared with the Judie iary department. The Tammany Judges $17,500, while the salaries of the Unite States Judges from Chief Justice Waite down to the District Judges, range only

Two Ways of Bring Lost, -There are from $10,500 to $4,000. hill road. This last device was not very two ways of coming down from the top Glancing at more ordinary offices, we seemed to point at a possible danger from and the other is to walk down by the Captain of cavalry in the United States other suggestions, did not meet with gen. So, also, there are two ways of going to watching or fighting Indians, gets $2,000 eral approval. At last, in 1772, after the hell : one is to walk into it with your eyes a year. A Superintendent of Incum matter had been discussed for about six open-few people do that- the other is brances, who spends his time in talking years, John Adams, then in England, to go down by the steps of little sins; and politics and playing englare in bar-rooms, sent over the design suggested by this that way, I fear, is only too common. In- gets, through Tammaby's munificence baronet, who, it appears, was an anti- dulge in a few little sins; you will soon twice as much. Down along the Jersey quary. The main device was an eagle want a few more, and your course will be sea coast are scattered keepers of life stawith a shield on his breast holding in one regularly worse and worse every year. tions. These men are detested Federal talon an olive branch, and in the other a Even a heathen could say, "Who was office-helders, consuming the substance bundle of arrows, and bearing in his ever content with only one sin? Well of the people. They patrol the coast by beak a scroll with the now familiar motto, did Jeremy Taylor describe the progress day and by night, especially during E. Pluribus Unum, one out of many. of sin in a man : "First is startles him, heavy storms of snow and sleet, looking then confirmed. Then the man is impen- over five months, they get the enormous itent, then obstinate, and then he is damn. pay of $200 a year-less than the $1 6 TREATMENT OF NEW DWELLING ROOMS. ed." Reader | the devil only wants to per day that helped to upset John Kelly. -The dampness of inewly i finished get the wedge of a little allowed sin into Look around the City Hall about payoms is not due so much to the water your heart, and you will soon be all his day, and you will find scores on scores used in mixing the plaster, as to the wa- own. Never play with fire; never trifle of well-known loafers, who never did an drawing their $100 and $200 a month

"You inquire, 'How can I prevent my for purely imaginary services. slow, and the water be liberated so grad- his pants?' That problem has been in Hook there tosses the light-ship, one of ually, that no injurious effects could re- the market ever since Eve asked Adam the most important commercial beacon sult. But as soon as the rooms become the same thing about young Cain. We in the world. There is a single keeper tenanted, the large amount of carbonic only know three sure ways : You can (assisted by his family,) who must be there acid given off in respiration causes such kill the boy, or you can make his pants at all times, except when the ship drifts rapid displacement of water, and with without any knees; but perhaps the best away before a storm. He must literally matters indicated by the peculiar way would be to get some other little keep his "light shining before men." He odor, that unpleasant and injurious re- boy, about the same size, to wear the cannot come home to vote, for he has no sults may follow. Treatment of the knees out, if you have such objections to other home, and but rarely, and then require the carbonic acid from the com- chignons and other French modes and ments, and bids him go forth with bustion of about 230 pounds of coal, to fashions. The decision was maintained horse and wagon and see how things work

A WAR RELIC.-A gentleman in Inroom, would answer, because the interior male purists of Germany are quite be thus given by the Terra Haute Express portions are protected from rapid action side themselves over this feminine fick- "When Col. Baker was killed at the but tle of Ball's Bluff, he caught in falling from his horse the top of a lithe hickory sapling, about two inches in thickness from the arch of a bay window is a pret- and when found by his comrades he had ty sight. The rustic effect is produced borne the tree to the earth with him and by prongs of wood nailed to a bowl. The lay with his body upon a portion of it The entire cost of the Centennial en- basket should be hung just high enough Wallace Martin, an Indiana soldier, nor terprise up to the opening day will, be in to smartly catch the head of the person of South Bend, after the battle went to She had scarcely spoken the words round numbers, $7,000,000. It is the rising beneath it. One such basket, with the tree and cut a stick from the portion "We can sell them. There are eight before there came a knock at the door, barrels at the least. Eight barrels at and in walked no less a personage than Mr. Willis [Avery himself. I received him with the air of an empress.

Mr. Willis [Avery himself. I received devoted first to paying the running ex-It is said there are more lies told in the ity by carving the rade stick into a case, "Here, I grant you, but not in the die," said he, almost reproachfully. "Do and corporations. To do this, $1,500,- sentence, "I am glad to see you," than and a snake wound around the entire

A rustic hanging basket suspended

Fulton New York

www.fultonhistory.com